

Key Learning in History: Years 1 and 2

Chronology	Events, People and Changes	Communication
Show their emerging knowledge and understanding of the past by: <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Recognising the distinction between past and present.▪ Identifying some similarities and differences between their own present and aspects of the past.▪ Place a few events and objects in order by using common phrases to show the passing of time (old, new/young, days and months). Show their developing knowledge and understanding of the past by: <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Recognising the distinction between present and past in their own and other people's lives.▪ Identifying some similarities and differences between ways of life in different periods.▪ Know where some people and events fit into a chronological framework by using common words and phrases about the passing of time (before, after, a long time ago, past...).	<ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ To tell the difference between past and present in their own and other people's lives by using and making simple comparisons to parts of stories, and features of events.▪ Recognise that their own lives are different from the lives of people in the past by describing some of the topics, events and people that they have studied.▪ Use simple stories and other sources to show that they know and understand key features of events.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Understand and use simple historical concepts such as now/then and same/different.▪ To show what they know and understand about the past in different ways (speaking, role-play, drawing and writing).▪ Understand historical concepts and use them to make simple connections and draw contrasts.
Enquiry, Interpretation and Using Sources
<ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Use sources to answer simple questions about the past.▪ Ask and answer questions about the past through observing and handling a range of sources, such as objects, pictures, people talking about their past, buildings, written sources.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Identify some of the basic ways the past can be represented.▪ To begin to understand the reasons why people in the past acted as they did from a range of sources (pictures, plays, films, written accounts, songs, museum displays, stories).

