Special Mentions

Year R: Azra Premrl-Hejja for her excellent counting of the owls.

Year 1: Maia John-Baptiste for excellent work in phonics and always trying your best.

Year 2: Zara Reddy for being such a sensible young lady who always puts others first!

Year 3: George Stocks for absolutely amazing progress in your handwriting and general writing over this half term. I am so proud of you! Also to all of Year 3 for the fantastic effort you have all put into your independent writes this week. Your persuasive letters were brilliant!

Year 4: Logan Morrison for excellent work in Science—super knowledge on bones.

Year 5: Fabian Rotariu for being a polite gentleman around school and showing great manners and courtesy towards others. A great example!

Year 6: India Stocks for a fantastic independent travel brochure—it was very impressive!

Year 6 Parents: Reminder to apply for a Secondary School Place for your child for September 2024. Closing Date: 31st October 2023. Please visit <https://www.lancashire.gov.uk/children-education-families/schools/apply-for-a-school-place>. You must apply even if an older brother or sister is already at the school.

Dear Parents and Guardians,

Thanks to all of those who responded to my previous letter regarding the Lancashire County Council Online Safety Briefing. The most favourable way to access the briefing was via a Zoom meeting so I have arranged for this to take place on Tuesday 14th November at 6pm.

All parents and carers are invited to attend and it will be a great way to learn how to keep children safe online and how to deal with situations that arise.

You will need to go to the following link to join the Zoom meeting:

<https://us02web.zoom.us/j/89093690257>

The meeting ID is : 890 9369 0257

We hope you find this useful and beneficial,

Kind Regards

Mrs Parkinson
